

UC SANTA CRUZ

Alumni Weekend Faculty Keynote & 2018 Peggy Downes Baskin Ethics Lecture

The Ethical Role of the Public University

Bettina Aptheker, distinguished professor and Peggy and Jack Baskin Foundation Presidential Chair for Feminist Studies, will deliver the Alumni Weekend's faculty keynote address and this year's Baskin Ethics Lecture in the newly renovated and reopened Quarry Amphitheater. Marlene Tromp, Campus Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor will join her in conversation.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 11 A.M.

UC SANTA CRUZ QUARRY AMPHITHEATER

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

FREE PARKING ON CAMPUS

PLEASE REGISTER AT ALUMNIWEEKEND.UCSC.EDU

The Peggy Downes Baskin Ethics Lecture is made possible by the Peggy Downes Baskin Humanities Endowment for Interdisciplinary Ethics.

The endowment was established by former Feminist Studies faculty Peggy Downes Baskin in honor of her longtime interest in ethical issues across the academic spectrum.

The Humanities
Institute

QUESTIONS? CONTACT SPECIALEVENTS@UCSC.EDU